Dear Taxpayer:

Our records indicate that we have not received your sales and use tax return for the following period:

Examples of other licenses issued by the CDTFA may include Cigarette and Tobacco Products Retailer's, Wholesaler's, or Distributor's License under the Cigarette and Tobacco Product Licensing Act of 2003, and any licenses issued by the DMV under California Vehicle Code sections 11518(E), 11617(A,6), and 11721.

What should I do now?

File your return immediately by logging in at www.cdtfa.ca.gov and click on "File a Return." You must file a return even if you have no sales or use tax to report or you cannot pay. If you cannot pay in full, please file your return, pay as much as you can to avoid additional interest, and then contact your local office to discuss your account.

Or

Bring your books and records to your local office at the scheduled time and place below and receive help with filing your return, electronically pay your amount owed, or post a required security on your account. In extraordinary cases, you may use this time as a hearing to prove to the CDTFA why your permit should not be revoked (Regulation 6070).
